

Tons of area artists will sign their books at Bogart's Sunday

Tuesday, September 08, 2009

From staff reports

MILLVILLE - Area authors will be signing their books at Bogart's Books during the city's Arts, Music and Antiques Festival, Sunday, from 10 a.m. until 6 p.m.

The signing will also feature a of line-up of musicians and bands inside the store, located at 210 N. High St.

Authors included in the signing event are:

Dr. Leonard Vernon, author of "Jewish South Jersey; Betty Higbee, "Around Fortescue; Allen Hauss, "South Jersey Movie Houses; W. Mae Kent, "Titanic: The Untold Story; Ann Boyle, "Turn of the Sentry; Reece Brett, "Stranger to Love; Peggy Erhart, "Sweet Man Is Gone; Kelly Varesio (Millville High School graduate), "Insperatus; Joseph Mangraviti, "Hooked on You; Daniel-Gary Holderman, "Heritage of Terra: The Endeavor; Adam W. McGinnis, "Eulogy for White America; Michelle Andrews, "Child of Compromise; and Judi Brett, "Buck the Buckle-Up Dog.